Barre Banks All Right, Also Hooker & Co.'s Furniture.

THE RIGHT MOTTO FOR 1908.

Down with the pessimist and calamity howler, they accomplish no good in any community. If you can't shut them up, walk away from them.

They make hard times where none exist. They are a great people to tear down, but awfully poor builders up. Barre banks are all right, solid as the Rock of Gibraltar. You can borrow money from them, too, for six per cent. It's been ninety-five per cent in New York. Shows you the difference between stock gambling and frenzied finance and legitimate business enterprises—the kind we have in Barre. Leave your money in the banks, buy what you please. Smile, look cheerful and be content. Nothing menaces you. Barre is all right. So is Mayor Robins. So is the City Council. Likewise the police force and its efficient head, Chief Faulkner; also the Fire Department and Chief Gladding. Buy all the luxuries you want. Keep your socks on your feet. Don't put money in them. Save your sugar bowls for sugar. Buy good furniture—the kind you see in our windows. Stick to optimism. Confidence wins battles. Barre is full of confidence, full of money, full of sound banks, sound hearts and sound sense, full of business. To show you our confidence in conditions, we will trust you, if you are trustworthy, for your furniture, not the common kind, either, but the best furniture made in this country.

We will take any kind of good money, too, also cash your checks. Cheer Up. Your home furnishers.

MONTPELIER.

Leap Year Ball Last Night Voted by Men to Be Decided Success.

A real leap year ball was given by thirty-five Montpelier young ladies last night, the affair taking place in the K. of C. hall and being a complete success.

The entertainers made no half-way work of the ball, and their guests were pleased to have the young ladies come for them in teams and then when they got to the hall the young ladies took the initiative, as per leap year customs, and asked for dances. The men were given one single chance to do the asking. At eleven o'clock, refreshments were served in the lodge room adjoining. The young men by a unanimous vote decided that the ladies had not set a fast pace in dances.

The funeral of Frank L. Gantier was held this morning at nine o'clock at St. Augustine's church, the Rev. Father J. J. Cullion officiating. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery.

At the residence of C. H. Heaton on State street last evening at 5-20 Whist club was entertained at dinner at six o'clock. A New Year's tree in one corner of the parlor contained a present for each member of the club, and many of these were in the nature of jokes and surprises. Bridge whist followed.

The exact date for holding the state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be decided some time this week. The encampment will be held at Montpelier in February, but Department Commander A. C. Brown has been waiting to hear definitely whether Commander-in-Chief Charles O.
